

FAQ

Can you participate in more than one contest?

Yes, you can participate in multiple contests, as long as there are no scheduling conflicts.

What happens if I cannot participate in a contest because of scheduling conflict?

Organizers scan through the registrations before the event date and identify anyone who might end up in a scheduling contest. Organizers will do their best to resolve the conflict. If the conflict cannot be resolved the participant will be notified and a refund will be issued only for the contest which has scheduling conflict.

Will the participant get to know the performance timings and the day?

Yes, you will be notified with emails. Recommend to join the Whatsapp Group to stay connected, plugged, and updated about World Wide Ramayan Utsav.

Will the participant get to know the zoom link?

Yes, The zoom link will be emailed to you for the contests you have registered your child.

Can I register over the phone?

Registration through phone is not supported at this time, all registrations are online only.

Can I register more than one participant at a time?

Yes, you have to register one child at a time.

Can I register for multiple contests at a time?

Yes, you can register for multiple contests at a time, by selecting the desired events during registration.

Can I register for additional contests later?

Yes, you can register for additional contests later. The earlier order cannot be edited or revisited, rather it will be a new registration for the additional contests. Make sure the personal information is the same in all registrations.

What happens after registration?

Once you register and make the payment you will get a confirmation email, keep it safe (you will require the invoice number while submitting your media files for the contests). You will get communications about the FREE virtual workshops to help and guide you prepare for the contest and details about the contest day, time and zoom link to participate in the follow up emails. .

For Further Questions Contact

Email: Ramayan@jkyog.org or Txt: 972-415-9296